

If I amend my report after it has been accepted, is the confirmation of acceptance email you sent me still valid?

No, the previous confirmation of acceptance email is void if you make changes to your report. That is because your report must be revalidated by our system and the changed data may cause it to fail.